

DATA SYSTEMS ANALYST

The Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission (MORPC) is seeking a Data Systems Analyst for the Transportation Department. This position will develop data systems designed to support the needs of the transportation planners, analysts, and decision makers. This individual must have the understanding of the intricacies of relational database organization and structures that are used in transportation planning. This position should be considered a customer driven position as well as a technical one.

This position will be responsible for database planning, database configuration and writing/editing computer program scripts to achieve desired functionality of data applications. This position will configure database interfaces for receiving, storing and reporting functions regarding relational data sets for demographic, economic, land development, transportation and other relative data sets. The results will be used in research and transportation policy analysis for input into other regional planning practices.

This individual will work with team members to identify, design and implement feasible, logical statistical procedures to provide useful information that can be used in developing a variety of regional transportation planning efforts including, but not limited to demographic, economic, safety, freight, multi-modal transportation, land use development and associated socio-economic issues.

Applicant must have a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or related field and a minimum of two years of experience in database administration. The ideal candidate will be experienced and interested in statistical analyses and database management. Applicant must have familiarity with SPSS, Access, Sql, and Microsoft Office 2007 and should have working knowledge of ESRI GIS software. Must have strong written and oral communication skills as well as strong organizational skills.

Individual must be able to legally operate an automobile in the State of Ohio, utilize a microcomputer keyboard and monitor, and communicate in English with staff and the general public.
